THE TAYLOR PLATFORM

"The power given by the constitution to the Executive, to interpose his veto, is a high conservative power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress."

"The personal opinions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair, ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy, nor ought his objections to be interposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of government, and acquiesced in by the people."

"Upon the subjects of the tariff, the currency, the improvement of our great highways, rivers, lakes, and harbors, the will of the people, as expressed through their representatives in Congress, ought to be respected, and carried out by the Executive."

"War, at all times, and under all circumstances, is a national calamity, to be avoided, if compatible with national honor." "The principles of our government, as well as its true policy, are opposed to the subjugation of other nations and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest, for, in the language of the great Washington, 'why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground.'"

Z. TAYLOR.

John Van Buren said in his speech at Buffalo, that "Cass stands no more chance of being elected, than a man who is not running at all."

"Sitting up with the Sick."—In Ohio it is said that when a Locofoco is heard of who is disposed to bolt Cass, an office-holder is sent to attend, and they call it "sitting up with the sick!" The "sickness" is spreading to a fearful extent, and the greatest alarm is felt among the office-holders lest there shall not be "well ones enough to take care of the invalids!"

PRINCIPLES OF CANDIDATE CASS—QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.—Q. Are you in favor of Protection?

A. That depends upon "circumstances."

Q. What is your opinion concerning the Public Lands?

A. I shall write no more political letters!

Q. Are you for or against the Wilmot proviso?

A. See my letters on both sides!

Q. Are harbor and river improvements constitutional?

A. The "noise and confusion" prevents my answer from being heard.

VOICE OF THE VOLUNTEERS.—The Louisville Journal of Wednesday says: Out of 300 Massachusetts volunteers who reached here on the West, but 11 were for Cass and all the rest for Taylor.

How unfortunate for the administration that they allowed the war to end before the election! But this resulted from the impertinence of Trist.

HORRIBLE SIGHT.—Two persons recently discovered in the woods near Philadelphia, the skeleton of a man named Charles Holland suspended from a limb of a tree. He had been missed some six weeks, and when found, the flesh had nearly all fell off from his bones, leaving the skeleton in his clothing.—Cia. Com.

GREAT FIRE IN CANADA.—There were seventy-five houses destroyed by fire at Sorel, Canada, on Saturday, the 24th ult.

A BRUTAL ACT—A HERO.—Yesterday three Germans made an attack upon a man named George Manning, on the Gravois road, in the southern part of our city. Manning stood his ground and badly whipped the three. They retreated and called to him nine others, and the twelve, with the aid of sticks, so cruelly beat Manning that there are some fears of his recovery. They left him lying, senseless, upon the ground, stripped of every vestige of clothing.—St. Louis Union, 7th.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A young lad named Samuel Ketchum fell from the steamer James Hewitt while lying on a wood-yard about fifty miles below Cairo, on Monday morning last. He was seen immediately after he fell, but every exertion to save him proved fruitless. His parents are said to reside in Madison Indiana.

AGUE FEVER

or Intermittent Fever, and the various forms of BILIOUS DISEASE permanently cured by DR. COLIN S. MACKENZIE'S TONIC FEBRIFUGE

A SOVEREIGN remedy for Ague and Fever.—This great Remedy, which the public attention is particularly called, has been extensively used in the western and south western states as a speedy and certain cure for ague and fever, dumb ague, Chills or intermittent Fever.

The unexampled and complete success attending its use, and so very proven have become its wide spread victories over every form of ague in the west that the 'Febrifuge' is now superseding every other offered remedy, and looked upon as the only one that can be relied upon in all stages of the disease.
